

Socialist Workers Party and Young Socialists Holiday Celebration

❖ Pathfinder Fund Event ❖

- ❖ More effectively and rapidly mobilizing youth around the world to respond to imperialism's accelerating assaults on the toilers
- ❖ Interview with Cuban revolutionary leader Victor Dreke: From the Escambray to the Congo, a new Pathfinder title for advancing the fight against imperialism and its war drive
- ❖ Imperialism's militarization drive, assault on workers' rights, and war against Afghanistan
- ❖ Pathfinder's plans for participation in the expanded 2002 Havana Bookfair
- ❖ Why accelerated recruitment to Young Socialists opens an international fusion perspective for the communist movement

Speakers include:

Mary-Alice Waters, editor of New International magazine; just returned from Cuba and participation in events marking the 45th anniversary of the landing of the Granma

Jack Willey, SWP National Committee; on the way to international meeting in Athens that aims to accelerate responsiveness of anti-imperialist youth movement

Norton Sandler, Organizer, New York Local of SWP; returned from leading socialist workers and youth at Guadalajara, Mexico, Bookfair

Jacob Perasso, Organizer, Young Socialists National Executive Committee

Sat., Dec. 15 at the Pathfinder Building, 165 Charles St., Manhattan

(2 blocks north of Christopher at West St.)

Dinner, 6:00 p.m. $7; Program 7:00 p.m. $5. Social to follow

This event takes place during a weekend of voluntary labor.

To volunteer, call (718) 567-8014; (212) 695-7358;

or (212) 740-4611; or (973) 643-3341.

Sponsored by the SWP branches in Brooklyn, Garment District, Upper Manhattan, Newark, and the New York Young Socialists.