
SATURDAY, JUNE 7, NEW YORK CITY

OPEN HOUSES, 2 PM - 4 PM

*Celebrate opening of new offices of the 'Militant,' 'Perspectiva Mundial,' and Socialist Workers Party!
And the newly renovated New York Pathfinder Bookstore! Stop by and visit both headquarters.*

Militant and SWP national offices, 152 W. 36th St., Rm. 401 (between 6th & 7th Aves.)
N.Y. Pathfinder Bookstore, 545 8th Ave., 14th floor (between 37th & 38th Sts.)

PUBLIC MEETING, HUNTER COLLEGE, 6:00 PM

Europe & America:
To the Victor Go the Spoils
Appearance and Reality of World Politics
Prospects for the Revolutionary Movement Today

SPEAKERS:

Jack Barnes, National Secretary, Socialist Workers Party

Diana Newberry, Young Socialist, and Joel Britton, Chicago organizer of the Socialist Workers Party, both just returned from tour of northern Europe

Mary-Alice Waters, editor of New Internationalist

Róger Calero, Militant and Perspectiva Mundial staff writer, victor in fight against anti-immigrant policies of U.S. government

Chairpeople: Arrin Hawkins and John Studer

- ❖ Calero anti-deportation victory sets example of what working people can accomplish by picking the right fights
- ❖ Europe: vanguard workers, farmers, and youth resist bosses' assaults, as conflicts among imperialist powers sharpen
- ❖ Cuban working people's readiness and political consciousness: powerful obstacle to Washington's 44-year-long goal of overthrowing socialist revolution

HUNTER COLLEGE, WEST BUILDING, ROOM 714, 7TH FLOOR
E. 68TH ST. AND LEXINGTON AVE. (S.W. CORNER)

Book sale at public meeting - big discounts! Computer components sale - bigger discounts!
Meeting followed by refreshments, snacks, and informal discussion.

Hosted by N.Y. Socialist Workers Party and Young Socialists. For more info: (212) 695-7358
