

Vote Socialist Workers!

Joel Britton, SWP candidate for governor of California

(The following will be printed in the California state voter's guide. Joel Britton is a retired meatpacker, running as an independent in the upcoming special election for California governor October 7th, 2003.)

I am a longtime trade unionist (having been a slaughterhouse worker—member of the United Food and Commercial Workers union—and a refinery worker—member of the Oil, Chemical & Atomic Workers union). I serve on the National Committee of the Socialist Workers Party, and am its southern California organizer.

I have actively opposed U.S. military interventions against the peoples of Vietnam, Cuba, Afghanistan, Iraq, Iran, and north Korea, joining millions around the world demanding, “U.S. Hands Off! Bring the GIs Home Now!”

(Britton talks to media at board of elections August 9th)

I have backed efforts to unite working people to fight for “Jobs for all! Cut the workweek with no reduction in pay! Raise the minimum wage!”; “Stop INS raids and deportations—end ‘no-match’ firings!”; “Fight police brutality—abolish the death penalty!”; “Defend women’s access to abortion!”; “Debt relief for working farmers! Stop foreclosures!”; “Defend affirmative action!”; “Stop Washington’s economic war against Cuba! Normalize relations now!”

I have opposed Democratic and Republican moves to put the economic crisis of capitalism on the backs of working people. I’m for a workers and farmers government that will abolish capitalism in the U.S. and join in the worldwide struggle for socialism.
