Abortion is a Woman's Right
by Pat Grogan
Why abortion rights are central to the struggle for the full emancipation of women, and why the labor movement has a vital stake in this fight. In English and Spanish. $4-$5 $2

Capitalism's World Disorder Working-Class Politics at the Millennium
by Jack Barnes
The social devastation and financial panic, the coarsening of politics and politics of resentment, the cop brutality and acts of imperialist aggression accelerating around us—all are the product not of something gone wrong with capitalism, but of its lawlike workings. Yet the future can be changed by the united struggle and selfless action of workers and farmers conscious of their power to transform the world. In English, Spanish, and French. $23-$25 $10

The Working Class and the Transformation of Learning
The Fraud of Education Reform Under Capitalism
by Jack Barnes
"Until society is reorganized so that education is a human activity from the time we are very young until the time we die, there will be no education worthy of working, creating humanity." —Jack Barnes
In English, Spanish, French, Swedish, and Icelandic. $3 $1

Is Biology Woman's Destiny?
by Evelyn Reed
The roots of women's oppression as a "second sex."
$3 $2

Women and the Family
by Leon Trotsky
How the October 1917 Russian revolution, the first victorious socialist revolution, opened the door to new possibilities in the fight for women's liberation. $4-$5 $5

The Long View of History
by George Novack
This pamphlet explains why revolutionary change is fundamental to social and cultural progress and how the struggle of working people for an end to oppression and exploitation is a realistic perspective built on sound scientific foundations. $5 $2

The Communist Manifesto
by Karl Marx
Frederick Engels
Founding document of the modern working-class movement, published in 1848. Explains why communism is derived not from precieved principles but from facts and from proletarian movements springing from the actual class struggle. In English and Spanish. $3-$5 $2

Problems of Women's Liberation
by Evelyn Reed
Explores the social and economic roots of women's oppression from prehistoric society to modern capitalism and points the road forward to emancipation. $22-$25 $5

Cosmetics, Fashions, and the Exploitation of Women
by Evelyn Reed, Joseph Hansen, Mary-Alice Waters
How big business plays on women's second-class status and social insecurities to rake in profits. The introduction by Waters explains how the entry of millions of women into the workforce during and after World War II irreversibly changed U.S. society and laid the basis for a renewed rise of struggles for women's emancipation. $44-$45 $5

Cuba and the Coming American Revolution
by Jack Barnes
"There will be a victorious revolution in the United States before there will be a victorious counter-revolution in Cuba." That statement, made by Fidel Castro in 1961, remains as accurate today as when it was spoken. This book, which is about the class struggle in the imperialist heartland, explains why. In English, Spanish, and French. $3 $5

Feminism and the Marxist Movement
by Mary-Alice Waters
Since the founding of the modern revolutionary workers movement 150 years ago, Marxists have championed the struggle for women's rights and explained the economic roots in class society of women's oppression. $3-$6 $2

Women's Liberation and the African Freedom Struggle
by Thomas Sankara
"There is not true social revolution without the liberation of women," explains the leader of the 1983-87 revolution in Burkina Faso. In English, Spanish, and French. $5 $2

The Changing Face of U.S. Politics Working-Class Politics and the Trade Unions
by Jack Barnes

An invaluable guide to the struggle for women's liberation and its increased weight in working-class politics, this is a handbook for workers, farmers, and youth repelled by the class inequalities, economic instability, racism, women's oppression, cop violence, and wars ending the road toward effective action to overturn that exploitative system and join in reconstructing the world on new, socialist foundations. In English, Spanish, and French. $23 $10

The Origin of the Family, Private Property, and the State
by Frederick Engels

How the emergence of class-divided society gave rise to repressive state bodies and family structures that protect the property of the ruling layers and enable them to pass along wealth and privilege. Engels discusses the consequences for working people of these class institutions—from their original forms to their modern versions. $17-$25 $5

Marianas in Combat
Teté Puebla and the Mariana Grajales Women's Platoon in Cuba's Revolutionary War, 1956-58
by Teté Puebla

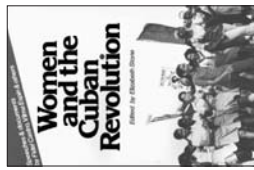

Brigadier General Teté Puebla, the highest-ranking woman in Cuba's Revolutionary Armed Forces, joined the struggle to overthrow the U.S.-backed dictatorship of Fulgencio Batista in 1956, when she was fifteen years old. This is her story, from clandestine action in the cities to serving as an officer in the victorious Rebel Army's first all-women's platoon. In English and Spanish. $44 $5

Malcolm X Talks to Young People
by Malcolm X

Four talks and an interview given to young people in Ghana, the United Kingdom, and the United States in the last months of Malcolm's life. This new edition contains the entire December 1964 presentation by Malcolm X at the Oxford Union in the United Kingdom, in print for the first time anywhere. The collection concludes with two memorial tributes by a young socialist leader to this great revolutionary. In English and Spanish. $5 $5

To Speak the Truth
Why Washington's 'Cold War' against Cuba Doesn't End
by Ernesto Che Guevara, Fidel Castro
In historic speeches before the United Nations and UN bodies, Guevara and Castro address the workers of the world, explaining why the U.S. government so hates the example set by the socialist revolution in Cuba and why Washington's effort to destroy it will fail. $16-$25 $5

Women and the Cuban Revolution
Speeches by Fidel Castro, Vilma Espín, and others
The transformation of women's economic and social status in Cuba since the 1959 revolution $14-$25 $5
